Literature has been a subject of study in many countries at a secondary or tertiary level, but until recently has not been given much emphasis in the EFL/ESL classroom.

Teaching materials: using literature in the EFL/ ESL

EFL teachers might be fooled into thinking that ESOL is another acronym for the same thing i.e. teaching people how to speak English. There is an element of truth in this and important skills are directly transferable, but there is a lot more to think about when approaching an ESOL classroom.

English as a second or foreign language is the use of English by speakers with different native languages. Language education for people learning English may be known as English as a second language (ESL), English as a foreign language (EFL), English as an additional language (EAL), or English for speakers of other languages (ESOL).
